About Patna

Patna, the largest city and the capital of Bihar is also known as Pataliputra. The modern city of Patna is situated on the southern bank of river Ganges. Patna is home to many tourist attractions. Takht Sri Patna Sahib is one of the Five Takhts of Sikhism and consecrates the birthplace of the tenth Guru of the Sikhs, Gobind Singh Padri Ki Haveli, High Court, Golghar, and Secretariat Building are examples of British architecture. Gandhi Maidan is a historic ground in Patna where several freedom movement rallies took place. The Patna Planetarium (Indira Gandhi Planetarium) located in Patna's Indira Gandhi Science Complex is one of the largest planetariums in Asia.

Venue

All India Institute of Medical Sciences was established as an institution of national importance by an Act of Parliament with the object to develop medical workforce to demonstrate a high standard of Medical Education and sophisticated health care at an affordable cost in India.

We, aim to be a centre of excellence both in the practice of medicine and training. We prepare enthusiastic and talented young people to play a key role at the forefront of their chosen profession. Through technical knowledge acquired from experienced and dedicated staff, the institute has been setup with most modern equipment and infrastructure, which gives you the opportunities to be exceptional.
